2023 ECOS Fall Meeting
ECOS at 30: Bigger, Better, Boulder
August 28-30
Boulder, Colorado

November 2022

Dear Friend of ECOS:

The Environmental Council of the States (ECOS) is pleased to announce an exciting member meeting lineup for 2023. Our national nonprofit, nonpartisan association of state and territorial environmental agency leaders plans a March 28-30 Spring Meeting in Arlington, Virginia, and an August 28-30 Fall Meeting in Boulder, Colorado. Because ECOS frequently is asked about opportunities to engage, we want to make you aware of sponsorship benefits for these well-attended gatherings, which generally attract 200-250 registrants.

The theme for the Spring Meeting is Building Bipartisan Solutions. As ECOS members converge on the nation's capital for these critical discussions with federal agencies and Congress, they bring unique insight and innovative ideas that can propel the nation toward durable bipartisan solutions. This gathering will center on approaches to pressing matters such as PFAS and biosolids, climate and energy, blue and green infrastructure, materials management, environmental justice, and sustainable funding.

In celebration of the 30th anniversary of ECOS in 2023, the Fall Meeting – ECOS at 30: Bigger, Better, Boulder – will allow states and our partners to take stock of progress made and priorities ahead.

Both meetings will feature top representatives of state and federal government, communities, NGOs, and the private sector. Sponsorship levels and benefits for each of the 2023 meetings include:
